

PLS 2003: Introduction to Political Research
Spring 2002

Assignment 2: Levels of Measurement
(10 points)

What is the level of measurement of the following? Each answer is worth 2 points.

1. The unemployment rates in each of the fifty American states.
2. The region of the country in which people were born.
3. How frequently people attended religious services in the last two months.
4. The number of employees in different government agencies.
5. The number of times incumbent senators voted the way the president wanted them to on twenty key pieces of legislation.
6. The occupation of candidates for public office.
7. The percent of different corporations' pretax profit accounted for by overseas sales.
8. The level of interest that individuals have in politics.
9. The religiosity of individuals in the state of Illinois.
10. The GDP of Europe, America and Africa.