

State-based definitions of genocide

Uruguay: The targeted groups of genocide include “national, ethnic, racial, religious, political, union or a group with its identity based in reasons of gender, sexual orientation, culture, social, age, disability or health.”

Ecuador: The targeted groups of genocide include “the victims of gender, sexual orientation, age, health and conscience.”

Republic of Congo: The targeted groups of genocide include “any group that is defined by an arbitrary characteristic.”